INGREDIENTS

floury potatoes	900
unsalted butter	120
whole milk	150
double cream	60
garlic clove	2
bay leaf	1
sea salt	8
white pepper	2
nutmeg	1
chives	15

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Peel the potatoes and cut them into even chunks so they cook at the same rate.
- 2 Cover with cold salted water, bring to a boil, then simmer for 20 minutes until tender.
- 3 Warm the milk and cream with the garlic and bay leaf; leave to infuse off the heat.
- 4 Drain the potatoes thoroughly and let them steam dry in the colander for two minutes.
- 5 Pass them through a ricer back into the warm pan.
- 6 Beat in the butter a cube at a time, then the strained infused cream.
- 7 Season with salt, white pepper and a scrape of nutmeg.
- 8 Fold through the chopped chives and serve immediately.
